KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Color Guard Auditions

Thank you for your interest in a Color Guard team with the Kansas State University Marching Band! Work ethic, adaptability, the ability to work as a team, as well as Color Guard talent and the ability to entertain 55,000+ people will be the major factors in our selection. The individuals chosen must have the ability to work with the band and understand their role in the overall performance. The following is the necessary information of which each candidate must be aware regarding the audition process and marching band season. Feel free to reach out to Coach Amy Tighe with any questions or concerns about the audition process. You can reach her at colorguardksu@gmail.com.
