

KANSAS STATE

University Bands

This Summer You're Invited to Attend

Advanced Instrumental Tune-Up

A one-day training ground of ideas and techniques for the successful band director.

We invite you to join us for a one-day practical seminar applicable to any secondary and middle school band director. You will enlarge your arsenal of tools and techniques to move you toward continuous improvement and an ever-expanding circle of competence. Our "hands-on" approach includes coming together to discover new rehearsal techniques and work with some wonderful repertoire suitable for secondary students.

Date: Friday, June 13 — 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Where: Tracz Family Band Hall – Kansas State University

What to Bring: Your Instrument to play in the demonstration ensemble

AIT Clinicians

Dr. Frank Tracz — Director of Bands, Kansas State University

Dr. Jay W. Gilbert — Director of Bands Emeritus, Doane University

Cost*: FREE, Totally FREE — Free doughnuts, Free Lunch, Free Handouts and Stuff

(*There is no cost, but if you sign up and then don't show up, it's $100)

Schedule

8:30 a.m.

Radina's Coffee and Varsity Doughnuts

9:00 a.m.

Welcome — Clinic the Essential Element – YOU!

10:20 a.m.

The Right Stuff — Thinking About Your Repertoire—

11:30 a.m.

Lunch and Q&A With Frank and Jay

12:30 p.m.

Planning for Rehearsal Success

1:30 — 3:45 p.m.

The Rehearsal — From Preparation to Realization

The how to move awareness to accomplishments in the areas of planning, warm-up, rehearsal techniques, and interpretation in the context of teaching and conducting. All AIT attendees will bring their instruments to form the lab ensemble to play some repertoire and to demonstrate the rehearsal and warmup ideas.

4:00 p.m.

Where Do We Go from Here?

To register for the AIT, please scan the QR Code:

or

Email Dr. Tracz at ftracz@ksu.edu

