

Recommended handbook changes needed to bring us into compliance with the grandfathered rights of regular unclassified professionals at Kansas State University to 12 month's notice of non-reappointment and falling under the exception established by KBOR for grandfathered classes of employees:

Reappointment: Regular Non-Tenure Track Appointments

C60 Definition. Faculty members on regular non-tenure track appointments (see C10) are evaluated annually to determine whether or not they will be reappointed ~~for another year~~. These faculty members must be explicitly informed in writing of a decision not to renew their appointments in accordance with The Standards of Notice of Non-Reappointment. (See C162.3C160.1.)

C160.1 General standards for non-reappointment.

1. For Tenure-Track Faculty: The Kansas Board of Regents has adopted The Standards of Notice of Non-Reappointment (NNR) set forth by the American Association of University Professors in the autumn of 1964 for tenure-track only. (See Appendix A. Also see AAUP Statement on Academic Freedom and Tenure, Appendix C.)
2. For Non-Tenure-Track (NTT) Faculty:
 - a. Notice Period:
 - ~~NNRs shall be provided 90 days prior to the end of the current appointment term (also known as the service end date).~~
 - Unclassified professionals holding regular appointments comprise a grandfathered class of employees established prior to July 1, 2023 \(see Kansas Board of Regents Policy Manual, Chapter II.C.7.b.\), and shall be provided notice of non-reappointment as described in C170.3. This policy supersedes that in PPM 4050 addressing NNRS.
 - b. Reasons for NNR:
 - ~~NNRs may be used to initiate termination for cause or to initiate termination without cause. Potential reasons are outlined in C161.1. If an NNR is used to initiate termination for cause, the reason will be disclosed and is eligible for grievance in accordance to procedures described in C160.3/C75 and in Appendix G.~~

C170.3 Persons holding regular or term unclassified professional appointments may be terminated without cause. Those holding regular unclassified professional appointments shall be provided notice of non-reappointment according to the schedule below. ~~shall be, provided that a 90-day notice of non-reappointment, is given in accordance to PPM Chapter 4050, Notice Procedure for NonReappointment to the schedule below. This notice is called notice of non-reappointment.~~

During the first year of service, the individual must be notified by March 1 if he/she will not be reappointed for the next fiscal year. During the second year, notification of the non-reappointment for the next fiscal year must be made by December 15. Thereafter, the individual must be provided 12 months' notice if they will not be reappointed. \(The first year of service ends with the fiscal year in which the individual was first appointed, unless the date of the appointment was after September 30. For those whose initial appointment was effective after September 30, the "first year" ends with the fiscal year after the year of appointment. However, in no case shall more than 12 months' notice be required.\)

| All appointments to term positions will be temporary appointments ending at or before the end of the term. Should need or money for the position be extended, a new term may be established with the approval of the dean or that appropriate vice president. In such instances, the incumbent may be appointed for the new term or a portion thereof without the position being declared open for initiation of a search process.
