

Hospitality Management Mission

The Hospitality Management Department advances the land-grant mission, hospitality industry, and discipline by:

Preparing undergraduate and graduate students with educational experiences that will positively impact their careers and society

Providing theory-based instructions, practical experience and research through student-centered curricula and engagement

Conducting applied, industry centered research to enhance the well-being of individuals and communities

For information about graduate application policies, procedures, or paperwork contact:

hospitality@k-state.edu

or

785-532-5521

You may also contact

Dr. Junehee Kwon

Director of

Graduate Programs

jkwon@k-state.edu

or

785-532-5369

Hospitality Management Master's Degree Program

Welcome to K-State!

How to apply to the Hospitality Management Program

The online application is available at <https://www.applyweb.com/kstateg/>

Create an account and check your application status

Have supplemental documents ready: Transcripts from all other colleges, three letters of recommendation, and affidavit of financial support

Pay the application fee of $50 for US citizens and $75 for international students

All directions and full steps are listed out at <http://www.k-state.edu/grad/admissions/application-process/>

Curriculum

Required Courses (16-19 credit hours)

- STAT 703 Introduction to Statistical Methods for the Sciences
- HM 805 Food Production Management OR HM 664 Lodging Management Theory
- HM 810 Research Techniques for Hospitality Management OR FSHS 888 Research Methods
- HM 885 Seminar in Hospitality Management
- ACCTG 810 Foundations of Accounting and Finance, if no undergraduate accounting courses were taken
- HM 890 Administration of Hospitality Organizations
- HM 895 Financial Management and Cost Control for the Hospitality Industry

Thesis Option (11-14 credit hours)

- HM 899 Research in Hospitality Management
- Graduate Electives

Non-thesis Option (17-20 credit hours)

- Graduate Course Electives

Study Abroad Information

Faculty-Led Study Abroad Trips

Korea, France, Costa Rica, and Ireland

Switzerland Graduate School Program

One year of your Master's program can be spent in Switzerland working towards your Master's degree. The classes that you will take will correspond with the Kansas State Master's degree program.

For more information visit:

http://www.bhms.ch/fileadmin/user_upload/pdf/online_documentation/bhms_viewbook.pdf

