With a total of 54 hours to complete, you will soon find yourself with a dual degree. Here are what some of your classes could look like!

Financial Management and Cost Controls for the Hospitality Industry
Research Techniques for Hospitality Management
Hospitality Law
Corporate Finance
Operations and Supply Chain Management
Managing the Triple Bottom Line Business
Management Accounting and Business Problem Solving

Your hospitality classes will cover 10 of those hours! Supporting classes will include 6 hours and you will have 3 hours in electives for the thesis option and 9 for the non-thesis. The remaining 30 hours will be spent focusing on Business Administration to achieve your dual degree! Apply now!!!
