Veterans Day

The university will remain open and scheduled classes will be in session on Veterans Day, Thursday, Nov. 11, 2027. Only those employees required to conduct necessary business should be requested to work. Non-exempt employees who work shall be compensated at one and one-half times (of either compensatory time or pay, following the overtime/compensatory time election in HRIS Employee Self Service). Exempt staff who work will be given equivalent time off at a later date through holiday comp time.

Reduced university activity period: December 24, 2026, to January 3, 2027

The university will reduce activity Thursday, Dec. 24, 2026 through Friday, Jan. 1, 2027, and will re-open for normal operation on Monday, Jan. 4, 2027. Normal workdays affected will be Dec. 28, 29, 30 and 31. The university will close during this period.

Benefit-eligible exempt and non-exempt employees will receive Dec. 28-31 off with pay, and employees will not need to use accrued leave these days. Excluded are nine-month employees, who are paid regardless during this time.

If eligible employees are unable to take off Dec. 28-31 because of work duties, they may take off (with pay) the equivalent days between Dec. 7-24 with supervisor approval.

Questions about employee leave should be directed to Human Resources at 785-532-6277 or hr@ksu.edu.

K-State Student Union: View building hours at http://union.k-state.edu/about/building-hours

K-State Police: Will continue to provide full police services.

Vice President for Research: The following offices will be closed during the holiday break: Office of the Vice President for Research, Corporate Engagement, Electronics Design Laboratory, Kansas State University Research Foundation, National Agricultural Biosecurity Center, Office of Research Development*, Office of Sponsored Programs*, Protein and Biopolymer Analysis Core Lab, Office of Research Integrity, Compliance and Security and Strategic Interdisciplinary Program Development.

*If you have a proposal submission deadline during this period and you anticipate that you will be unable to finalize the required materials for submission prior to the holiday break, contact the Office of Sponsored Programs at research@k-state.edu or the Office of Research Development at ord@k-state.edu before Monday, December 14. Arrangements can be made to have adequate staffing available to meet your proposal submission needs. Emails may also be sent to Beth Montelone at bethmont@k-state.edu or Paul Lowe at plowe@k-state.edu.

The Protein and Biopolymer Analysis Core Lab will be monitoring email if you need to place orders for oligonucleotides during this time.

Office of Research Integrity, Compliance and Security will be monitoring email at comply@k-state.edu during the holiday break.

The following offices will remain open during the holiday break, except for officially observed state holidays: Biosecurity Research Institute and Comparative Medicine Group. Offices may have limited staff during the holiday break.

Building Access

Buildings will be unlocked/locked according to the most recently submitted schedule on record with Facilities Room Scheduling. Unless otherwise requested, buildings will remain open on weekdays during regular business hours and closed on weekends and university holidays. Safety and security should be considered during the period when there is reduced physical presence in buildings following the end of the fall semester and through the start of the spring semester. If unit heads, deans and vice presidents choose to adjust the hours the buildings are open, please do so by completing the Request for a Standing Building Order by Friday, Nov. 20, and sending it to rooms@k-state.edu. If multiple units are in a building, unit heads should coordinate and submit one request for a change to building hours.

Holiday Mail Service

Normal central mail services operations will be conducted until 1 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 23.

- All outgoing mail will be collected, processed and dispatched to USPS, UPS, FedEx and DHL by the end of the business day.
- No campus mail pick up or delivery will occur Dec. 24-Jan. 1.
- Normal mail delivery will resume Jan. 4, 2027.

Central Mail Services will hold mail during the closure unless a building designee arranges pickup.

- Submit the attached Mail Delivery Requirements form by Tuesday, Dec. 1 if mail will be picked up.
- Designees can pick up mail at Central Mail Services (127 Dykstra Hall) from 11 a.m.-12 p.m. on Dec. 28 and 30.

Contact Anne Murphy, Assistant Director, at 785-532-1735; or Bridgett Henry, Mail Room Supervisor, at 785-532-7751, with questions about holiday mail service.

Thank you for your cooperation. Have a wonderful holiday season!
