FRESHMAN K-INBRE RESEARCH SCHOLARS APPLICATION FORM

Freshmen students can be selected for the Kansas State University K-INBRE Scholars Program. These students will be expected to commit 300 hr to research activities during their sophomore year, participate in KSU K-INBRE scholar's meeting (the last Wednesday of each academic month), and present their research at the annual K-INBRE symposium held on the Martin Luther King weekend in January 2026. Students will also be expected to participate in local research symposia when appropriate. This scholarship may be renewed for a second year with appropriate progress reports. To make this application equal for those without a lab or with a lab, this application is to be written BY THE STUDENT without mentor assistance. Applications are due before 11:59pm March 1, 2025. All funding opportunities are contingent on future awards from the NIH.
