

Phi Kappa Phi Graduate Fellowship

Purpose One way in which Phi Kappa Phi supports its mission to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education. To honor top students among the ranks of Phi Kappa Phi. Established in 1932.

Award

Tenable At an accredited institution of higher learning, domestic or international. For the pursuit of a graduate or professional degree.

Number & Amount Two fellowships of $35,000. Six more at $20,000. And 50 at $8,500.

Duration First year of graduate or professional school only.

Eligibility

Who Member of Phi Kappa Phi (or selected for initiation). There is a date by which you must be current on dues for the coming year. Check the website to verify.

When Typically in the final undergraduate semester (or semester after for December graduates). Students cannot have earned ten or more graduate credit by the deadline. Alumni who have not matriculated into graduate school may also seek nomination.

Selection Criteria Typically 3.9 GPA or higher. Scholarly ability and promise. Leadership and extracurriculars. Strong letters of reference. Clear goals. Credible applicant for top programs in your field of study. Strong test scores (such as GRE or LSAT).

Campus Deadline March 1. Each chapter can nominate ONE individual.

Deadline April in recent years. Check with Jim early in the spring semester.

Application Application form with resume information. Personal statement. Standardized test scores. Three letters of reference (with specific form). Transcripts. Campus nomination.

Contact Beth Powers coordinates the PKP Graduate Fellowship at Kansas State. Reach her at 207 Leadership Studies or (785) 532-3422.

Other Phi Kappa Phi also offers several scholarships at the campus level to members with one or more undergraduate semesters remaining. Applications typically due in the spring. Check the chapter website for details: www.ksu.edu/phikappaphi.

More information is available at www.phikappaphi.org. Seniors may also want to look into the Phi Kappa Phi Love of Learning grant. 160 awards of $500 will be given to active members for postbaccalaureate study and/or career development activities.

10/7/2022