Hall Governing Board Minutes

February 15th, 2009

---Patrick Flores from Moore Hall came to discuss a Murder mystery dinner with a renaissance/ medieval theme that their HGB is planning. They are inviting Strong complex residents to come enjoy the night. "A Knight of Mystery" participants will eat dinner, during which a murder will occur and the guests will be left to find out who the culprit is. The meal is free and will be served in the Derby Gold Room. The event will be held Tuesday March 10th from 6:30-8:30pm. Sign up at front desk if you're interested!!

---Christie reported that we have more money than we thought!!

---Nathan announced that the first week of recycling went really well! He's also working with REDHOTS to get events planned for Earth Week.(April 20-24th)

---If you still have a t-shirt design you'd like to turn in, they're due by Tuesday night at 9pm. Voting will begin Wednesday.

---The elections committee was formed.

---The Tunnel of Oppression will take place Monday and Wednesday nights from 7-9pm. This is a diversity program meant to expose difficult issues such as body image, racism, prejudice etc. A shuttle runs from the Derby complex to the event throughout the night. A Putnam group is leaving Monday night at 7pm if you'd like to join!
