Hall Governing Board Minutes
April 11, 2010

This is a time of many happenings!

Putnam Hall

April 11th marks the beginning of Diversity Week. There are nightly events that you are able to attend. Itineraries of said events are scattered about Putnam.

All hall bonfiring at Pottawatomie 2 will happen on April 16th (this Friday.) Info posters will contain the details, so be looking for them!

If you are jonesin' for a burger or a hotdog this Sunday (April 18th) sign up and then stop by Putnam's front porch to eat some BBQ. The time had there will be grand, as will the food. Once again, the time and cost will be on a poster, which will be on a wall, which will be somewhere in Putnam soon.

Have any talents that you want to share with the world? Well, Putnam is having an open mic night on April 19th (next Monday) where you can display your talents. It's taking place sometime in the evening, but check the walls of Putnam for more info!

Free on Saturday April 24th? Good news! You have two different opportunities to not be bored.

1. Attend a Royals' game in KC. Tickets are $15, and you can sign up at the front desk.
2. Attend/help out with K-State's Open House. It's from 9 AM to 3 PM. Volunteer tour guides to show visitors through Putnam would be much appreciated.

Speaking of appreciation, the Constitution has been reviewed, and the Putnam HGB has an abundance of appreciation for those of you who helped out! Thank you times infinity.

Lesson of this week's minutes: Read the posters!!!
