Required: review and check all statements before submission:

- I have read the Scholarship Renewal Information applicable to my personal award along with the Frequently Asked Questions section at: <https://www.k-state.edu/sfa/scholarships-aid/scholarships/continuing-students/renewal/faqs.html>
- I have completed and signed this Scholarship Appeal Form
- I am submitting a typed personal statement (one-page maximum) explaining how my extenuating circumstances during the 2023-2024 academic year prevented me from meeting the renewal requirement for my award.
- I am submitting at least one form of supporting documentation for each extenuating circumstance I have checked on this Scholarship Appeal Form.
- I understand review of my appeal may take up to two weeks depending upon when I submit my complete appeal.
- I understand that my appeal may be denied and that any appeal decision reached by the Office of Student Financial Assistance, acting under the direction of its director, is final and may not be further appealed.

Important:

Incomplete or missing information will delay appeal process. Any changes to financial aid awards will be contingent on availability of funding. After initial review, additional documentation may be required. Students waiting for an appeal decision should be fully prepared to assume responsibility for all course enrollment and account balance payments, regardless of appeal decision.

Student Access Center Reminder

Students with disabilities who need classroom accommodations, access to technology, or information about emergency building/campus evacuation processes should contact the Student Access Center and/or their instructor. Services are available to students with a wide range of disabilities including, but not limited to, physical disabilities, medical conditions, learning disabilities, attention deficit disorder, depression, and anxiety. If you are a student enrolled in campus/online courses through the Manhattan or Olathe campuses, contact the Student Access Center at accesscenter@k-state.edu or 785-532-6441. For the K-State Polytechnic campus, contact Academic and Student Services at polytechnicadvising@k-state.edu or 785-826-2674.
